

Kathleen Fadigan, Ed.D.
3011 Richmond Street
Philadelphia, PA 19134
(267) 971-6431
katfadigan@hotmail.com

EDUCATION

- * Reading Area Community College, Reading, PA, Auctioneering Certification Program, June 2021. (will sit for state exam this summer)
- * Temple University, Philadelphia, PA, Doctor of Education degree in Curriculum, Instruction and Technology in Education with concentration in science & mathematics education, May 2003.
- * Temple University, Philadelphia, PA, Graduate Certificate of Completion in Women's Studies, May 2003
- * Temple University, Philadelphia, PA, Master of Education degree in Secondary Science Education, December, 1995.
- * Temple University, Philadelphia, PA, Bachelor of Science degree in Biology, minor in History, May 1993.

RELATED ACTIVITIES

Barry S. Slosberg Inc. Auctioneers & Appraisers, Philadelphia, PA

4/21 – 6/21

Volunteer

Assisting with a variety of auction-related tasks as required by the Auctioneer Certification Practicum including but not limited to intake/delivery of consignments, cataloging, photographing, and clerking, and running.

Patrick Morgan Auction Services, LLC, New Holland, PA

5/21

Volunteer

Assisting with a variety of auction-related tasks as required by the Auctioneer Certification Practicum including but not limited to intake/delivery of consignments, setting up for online auctions, and shipping.

Martin Auctioneers, Inc., New Holland, PA

4/21 – present

Seasonal Staff

Assisting with a wide variety of auction-related tasks including but not limited to intake/delivery of consignments, communication with consignors and buyers, cataloging, clerking, check-out and removal of items associated with the 50th Anniversary Spring Carriage Auction.

Mad Hatter Antique Mall, Adamstown, PA

7/15 – present

Vendor

Maintain two showcases and one booth, featuring a variety of vintage cameras, Pyrex kitchen and laboratory glassware, mid-century kitchenware, art, pottery, ephemera, small furniture and vintage toys.

Haddonfield Antique Mall, Haddonfield, NJ

11/10 – 5/15

Vendor

Maintained one showcase and one booth, featuring a variety of vintage cameras, Pyrex glassware, mid-century kitchenware, art, pottery, small furniture, ephemera, vintage toys, and entertainment memorabilia.

Rosebush Antiques, Levittown, PA

7/10 – 1/15

Vendor

Maintained one booth, featuring a variety of vintage Pyrex glassware, mid-century kitchenware, pottery, small furniture, vintage toys, and entertainment memorabilia.

Atwater Kent Museum, Philadelphia, PA

1/92 – 6/92

Collections Intern

Responsible for a variety of collections and exhibit related tasks such as cleaning, cataloging, and exhibiting historical items including a collection of 18th century miniatures and glass photographic plates from Eadweard Muybridge's studies of motion.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Philadelphia Education Fund, Philadelphia, PA

8/20 – present

Consultant - McKinney Center for STEM Education

Serving as a curriculum consultant on a multi-partner, multi-year, grant-funded project with the aim developing, implementing and evaluating a high school program designed to prepare urban youth for careers in solar energy installation and home weatherization. Working closely with local content experts to develop engaging lesson plans grounded in current best practices in pedagogical content knowledge for science education.

Pennsylvania State University, Abington, PA

Program Chair – Rehabilitation and Human Services BS degree

8/14 – 12/20

Associate Teaching Professor – Science Education

7/19 – 12/20

Program Chair –Elementary and Early Childhood Education (PK-4)

8/14 – 6/17

Program Coordinator – Childhood & Early Adolescent Education (PK-4)

8/10 – 7/14

Assistant Professor – Science Education

8/05 – 6/19

Most recent duties included teaching undergraduate level science education, curriculum & instruction, and biology courses at the Abington campus; building and implementing the Rehabilitation and Human Services BS degree program; supervising six full-time and over a dozen adjunct faculty; advising students; creating course schedules; conducting scholarly research; and interacting with local school districts, community organizations, and human service providers in order to better serve the regional education community. Past assignments included coordinating both early childhood education (PK-4) and secondary science education teacher certification degree programs, teaching graduate courses in science education, curriculum and instruction, and educational leadership, as well as advising graduate students' theses at the Great Valley campus.

University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PA

8/19 – 5/20

Adjunct Professor - Graduate School of Education

Instructor for a two-semester long graduate seminar, EDUC 696 Informal Learning Experience. As part of the Learning Sciences and Technology and the Teaching, Learning & Leadership MEd. degrees, the course covers theory, research, and practice in informal learning, as well as a six-month internship experience.

AWARDS & RECOGNITIONS

2017 Outstanding Faculty Advising/Mentoring Award – Penn State Abington

2014 Outstanding Teaching Award – Penn State Abington

1998 Distinguished Teaching Award, College of Arts and Sciences, Temple University

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

10/14 – pres Center for Aquatic Science at the Adventure Aquarium, Camden, NJ

*Board of Trustees member

10/10 – pres WGBH, Boston, NOVA – Curriculum Advisor

9/10 – pres Delaware Valley Science Fairs, Philadelphia, PA

*Committee Member & ISEF Teacher Chaperone

1/95 - pres. George Washington Carver Science Fair Committee, Philadelphia, PA

*Judges Chairperson